These are Nike Milers. Based on the survey responses, we will offer three color choices: white, blue and red. Availability of colors & sizes are limited due to the special price offer.

Women's choices: blue or red with the white side panels, or all white.

Men's choices: plain blue or red – no panels; the white comes only with the black panel.

Colors shown are from the Nike web pages (may vary slightly).

Cost for the shirts is about $15 including printing. To order, fill out the form below and send the order with a deposit of $15 per shirt. We'll hold the check until you receive your order. We'll deliver locally, but will ask you to cover mailing cost if you want your order sent. The standard Nike Milers are available at Garry Gribble's if you want to check on the size.
